

Kay Witt Fine Art Presents Lisa Ober Pastel Workshop

Sept 13-15, 2024, St. Paul's Heritage Center, Edinburg, VA

LISA OBER - Still Life Class Description 2024, Edinburg, VA

If you like color and realism, you'll love this class! Lisa Ober, Master Pastelist, will take you through still life painting from A to Z. She will discuss planning subject matter that is contemporary and unique. She will discuss ways to set your compositions apart from the crowd so your paintings will be fresh and innovative. From sketch to signature, you'll learn all the tools you need for wildly successful paintings, including Lisa's hot tips and tricks for everything from metal to glass.

Lisa loves still life painting and she also loves teaching artists. She LOVES visiting Woodstock and can't wait to make more friends! Expect to get plenty of attention and personal guidance, so you leave the workshop with the confidence and motivation to do more.

Artists will follow Lisa's step-by-step approach using a provided reference, so the class can stay on pace and all topics can be covered thoroughly.

Topics to be covered:

- Surfaces for success
- Choosing a subject
- Creating your own voice
- Exceptional composition
- Lighting the subject
- Tips for working from life and reference photos
- Pastel brands that work for you
- Finishing touches to find your "style"

If you have taken a Lisa workshop before, you may use your own reference for any subject you wish (see note below). Either way you'll have a great foundation for creating amazing pastel paintings at home.

*NOTE: If you wish to work from your own reference at the workshop, email your reference to Lisa at LisaAOber@gmail.com at least 4 weeks prior to class for review and approval. She wants to help you have a successful painting and your reference is crucial, especially with regard to clarity and lighting issues.

This is going to be a 3-day pastel painting extravaganza with lots of fun, loaded with tips and ideas to take your work to the next level, and it's sure to give you a sense of great accomplishment.

The paper is included. Bring your own pastels and easels. More details on what to bring, and directions will be sent to your email when you sign up.
